

Hello!

I'M STEPHANIE

During a May 2021 hike with a friend at Rocky Mountain National Park, a moose crossed our path about 20 feet ahead. It briefly paused to nibble on brush and then circled back, passing just 10 feet away from us in all its grandeur. We stood in awe, transfixed by this remarkable creature.

That moose served as the catalyst for a significant life decision, which I pursued with the guidance of an exceptional life coach.

Now, I want to partner with people to teach them what I learned so they too can learn to live and lead with confidence.
